

Do you think
civil society actors could manage the oceans?

Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.

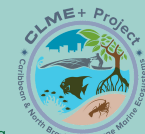

www.theGEF.org

They are already doing it...

50+

Civil society and fisherfolk organizations, as well as small and micro enterprises from across the Caribbean and North Brazil Shelf Large Marine Ecosystems (CLME+) region have endorsed and are helping to implement the Civil Society Strategic Action Programme (C-SAP).

©Natalie Boodram

a practical guide

developed by and for civil society, that addresses unsustainable fishing, habitat degradation, pollution and climate change in the CLME+ region.

Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.

www.theGEF.org

With

8 strategies and 90 associated actions

to unify and focus civil society action across the region for the management of key coastal and marine ecosystems.

It was a product of a participatory process facilitated by CANARI
and the UNDP/GEF CLME+ Project

Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.

www.theGEF.org

to strengthen the role of civil society actors in the implementation of the 10-year CLME+ Strategic Action Programme (CLME+ SAP) for the management of shared living marine resources.

©CANARI

Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.

www.theGEF.org

Want to find out more and get involved?

Visit www.clmeplus.org/c-sap

Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.

www.theGEF.org

